Intoxicated Man Arrested After Causing a Disturbance

(REEDSBURG, WI) A Muscoda man was taken into custody Saturday evening after police responded to a disturbance.

At 7:53pm, Reedsburg Police were dispatched to the 500 block of Alexander Avenue for a report of an intoxicated male threatening residents of an apartment complex. The male was also trying to fight with one of the residents. An officer located a shirtless male, Anthony R Houston (29), yelling and throwing his arms in the air. Officers attempted to take Houston into custody; however, he did not follow commands. Houston then threatened harm to the officer. Houston was tased and taken into custody once additional law enforcement arrived on scene.

Houston was transported to a local hospital for treatment where he continued to threaten law enforcement and health care staff. Houston was then transported to Sauk County Jail for Domestic Disorderly Conduct, Disorderly Conduct, Resisting an Officer, Threat to a Law Enforcement Officer and Threats to Health Care Provider or Staff.

These charges are merely an accusation of criminal conduct where probable cause existed for an arrest. This individual is presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
